

BOOK WITH CONFIDENCE

Anglo-Continental continues to work hard to reduce any impact on our students in light of the COVID-19 outbreak.

We are pleased to announce that we are extending our amended Cancellation Policy to allow our students to book with confidence.

For all new enrolments received as of 17 September 2020, should the government in England or the student's government in their country of residence advise against all travel to the UK we will offer:

- a full refund of the student's course fees (less bank charges)

and

- a full refund of the student's homestay accommodation (less bank charges)

Alternatively, we will offer:

- the opportunity to postpone the course and homestay accommodation for up to 12 months.

These changes to our standard cancellation policy will apply until the end of December 2022.

STUDENTS WHO HAVE STARTED THEIR COURSE FROM MONDAY, 14 SEPTEMBER 2020

Should it be necessary to temporarily close the school due to a confirmed positive case of COVID-19 or local lockdown, students will continue their classes online for up to 21 days.

Should the situation continue for more than 21 days then students can choose one of the following options:

- Continue their online studies
- Postpone their course and homestay accommodation for up to 12 months.
- Request a full refund for the unused portion of their course and homestay accommodation fees (less bank charges)

These changes to our standard cancellation policy will apply until the end of December 2022.

Click here to view our coronavirus policy.