

Milestone Timeline

Prospectus for Summer courses featuring Bournemouth beach. - 1969

A flyer for the newly announced "Holiday Course for Juniors". - 1972

Course programme for years 82' and 83'. - 1982

Course Programme. - 2011

Anglo-Continental owl "logo bug".

1950

Establishment

The school was founded by Fritz Schillig

1958

Recognition

Recognised as efficient by the Ministry of Education

1972

Vacation

A Holiday Course for Juniors was created

1982

Accreditation

First accredited by the British Council

2018

Innovation

Started offering Online English Courses

2024

Approval

Approved as an official IELTS Test Centre

Relocation

Anglo-Continental opened the Wimborne Road site

1955

Aviation

Aviation English courses were introduced

1971

Foundation

Formation of the Anglo-Continental Educational Group

1974

Direction

Guido Schillig became Managing Director

1997

Authorisation

Authorised as a test venue for OET

2019

Position Today

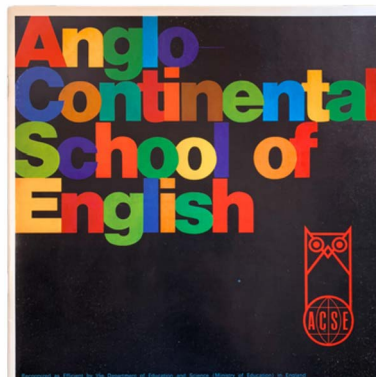

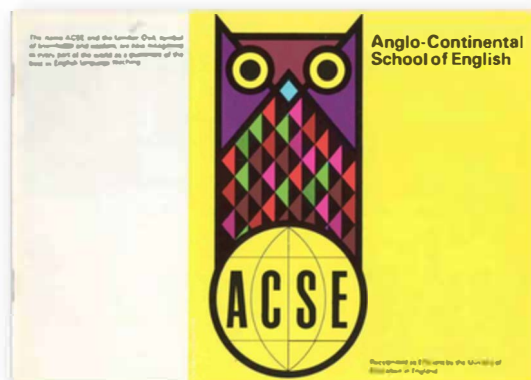

We are one of the prominent leaders in the English language industry with 75 years' experience

2025

A newspaper cutting covering the school to commemorate a newly built wing. - 1965

Small course prospectus designed to fit through letter boxes. - 1966

Square course prospectus. - 1968

Course programme featuring the "Anglo-Continental Educational Group" logo. - 1977

Course prospectus with "50th Anniversary" celebratory sticker. - 1999

Anglo-Continental themed Calendar for years 03' to 05'. - 2003

